1 1. This action originated when Shotsay Posciri filed a charge with the Equal
2 Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC” or “Commission”) on July 14, 2004. Posciri
3 alleged that United Freight and Transport, Inc., in Anchorage, Alaska (“United Freight”) 4 discriminated against her based upon her sex in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 5 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, et seq. (“Title VII”) when she was denied employment as a Freight 6 Truck Driver.

7 2. On January 27, 2005, the EEOC issued a letter of determination with a finding of 8 reasonable cause that United Freight violated Title VII when Ms. Posciri was not hired for the 9 Freight Truck Driver position. Thereafter, the EEOC attempted to conciliate the charge, but was 10 unsuccessful.

11 3. The Commission filed its Complaint on May 27, 2005, in the United States District 12 Court for the District of Alaska. The complaint alleges that United Freight violated Title VII by 13 failing to hire Ms. Posciri because of her sex. Ms. Posciri filed a complaint in intervention on 14 November 1, 2005 bringing additional state law claims against United Freight.

15 4. Defendant denied the allegations of discrimination in the EEOC’s complaint and Ms.
16 Posciri’s complaint in intervention and asserted several affirmative defenses.

17 5. The parties want to conclude fully and finally all claims arising out of the EEOC’s 18 complaint, the charge of discrimination filed with the EEOC by Shotsay Posciri, and the 19 complaints filed by the EEOC and Shotsay Posciri. The EEOC, Shotsay Posciri and United 20 Freight enter into this Consent Decree to further the objectives of equal employment as set forth 21 in Title VII and the Alaska state law.
